16. References

Section 9 Senior Leadership and Teacher Application Forms and Section 7 Support Staff and Lay Chaplain Application Forms

All applicants are required to provide details of at least two, and up to three, referees.

Schools/Colleges of a Religious Character in England and Wales are permitted by law to require certain posts to be filled by practising Catholics.

Senior Leadership posts – Applicants are advised that the ‘Memorandum on Appointment of Teachers To Catholic (Voluntary Aided and Independent) Schools’ (October 2012), provides that ‘the posts of Headteacher, Deputy Headteacher and Head or Coordinator of Religious Education are to be filled by baptised and practising Catholics’. The Memorandum may be viewed by visiting the CES’s website at www.catholiceducation.org.uk.

Teacher posts – Applicants are advised that schools/colleges are entitled to give priority to practising Catholic applicants.

Support Staff posts – Applicants are advised that schools/colleges (in England only) are entitled to give priority to practising Catholic applicants where it can be demonstrated that it is a proportionate means of achieving a legitimate aim (commonly known as a “genuine occupational requirement”).

Schools/colleges may provide guidance to the applicant regarding the definition of a “practising Catholic” in the event that the applicant is shortlisted for interview.

Summary: All practising Catholic applicants, regardless of the post for which they are applying, are advised to provide referee details for their Parish Priest so that the school/college may give priority in accordance with the remit of the law (where applicable). Those applicants applying for Senior Leadership posts referenced in the Memorandum must provide such details.

Notes (i) – Applicants must advise the school/college if they do not want them to contact any of their referees and provide reasons. For example, where applicants are currently employed, they may not wish the school/college to contact their employer until such time that they have given notice to terminate their employment.

Section 9.2 Senior Leadership and Teacher Application Forms and Section 7.2. Support Staff and Lay Chaplain Application Forms – In the event that an applicant is appointed, any failure to disclose the existence of a relationship, whether it be by marriage, blood or as co-habitee, between the applicant or their spouse/civil partner/partner with a member, or an employee, of the Governing Body of the school/college where the post is situated may be considered a disciplinary offence warranting summary dismissal.

17. Immigration, Asylum and Nationality Act 2006

Section 13 Senior Leadership and Teacher Application Forms and Section 11 Support Staff and Lay Chaplain Application Forms

In accordance with the legal requirements of the Immigration, Asylum & Nationality Act 2006 (“the 2006 Act”) the Governing Body is under a legal duty to require all members of staff to provide documentary evidence of their entitlement to undertake the position applied for and to ensure that they have an ongoing entitlement to live and work in the UK. These checks need to be carried out for every person the Governing Body employs regardless of race, ethnicity or nationality. Therefore, on conditional offer of employment, and before a successful applicant commences their post, they must provide supporting evidence of their right to live and work in the UK. Generally speaking, the provision of one of the documents listed below will be sufficient proof but applicants are advised to consider the United Kingdom Border Agency’s requirements for preventing illegal working in the UK for a full list of documents that may prove such entitlement which can be found on the Home Office’s website.

The most common proof of entitlement documents are:

- (a) A passport showing that the holder, or a person named in the passport as the child of the holder, is a British citizen or a citizen of the UK and Colonies having the right of abode in the UK.
- (b) A national passport or national identity card showing that the holder, or a person named in the passport as the child of the holder, is a national of a European Economic Area country or Switzerland.
- (c) A residence permit, registration certificate or document certifying or indicating permanent residence issued by the Home Office, the Border and Immigration Agency or the UK Border Agency to a national from a European Economic Area country or Switzerland.

- (d) A permanent residence card issued by the Home Office, the Border and Immigration Agency or the UK Border Agency to the family member of a national from a European Economic Area country or Switzerland, who is resident in the UK.
- (e) A Biometric Residence Permit issued by the UK Border Agency to the holder which indicates that the person named in it is allowed to stay indefinitely in the UK, or has no time limit on their stay in the UK.
- (f) A passport or other travel document endorsed to show that the holder is exempt from immigration control, can stay indefinitely in the UK, has the right of abode in the UK or has no time limit on their stay.
