Exam preparation

- Make sure your son/ daughter familiarises themselves with the exam arrangements with their timetable to hand, knowing the start times and length of each exam - students will be issued with individual timetables after half term.
- Getting any equipment sorted the day before.
- Take care of themselves by having a enough sleep and eating properly.

During the exams

- Correct equipment - pen, pencil, ruler, calculator, clear pencil case (no logos), clear water bottle (no logos).
- Prohibited items - watches, mobile phones, electronic devices, tissue packets.
- Please note that all morning examinations commence at 9am and all students are expected to be in school at the normal time of 8.40am.

After the exam

- If the exam is in the afternoon then students should return to normal lessons when the exam finishes

Should you need to inform the school of any attendance issues during the exams please contact our exams officer, Mrs K Saunders, on k.saunders@allsaints.york.sch.uk or call on 01904 545205.

We would like to take this opportunity to congratulate our students for their hard work and dedication up to this point, and wish them all the best in their examinations.

Yours sincerely

Mr R Stabler
